

Rules of Procedure
applying to the Ministerial Council of the NATO's North Atlantic Council for its simulation during
Rhodes Model Regional Co-operation 2022

1. General considerations

1.1. Scope

The following rules apply to the Rhodes Model Regional Co-operation (RhodesMRC) conference for the simulation of the NATO's North Atlantic Council (NAC) In case of conflict of interpretation, the Secretary General has the final authority for determining the applicability of the Rules of Procedure.

Delegates may also refer to the "RhodesMRC Handbook", which is available on our website and contains all the necessary general considerations and procedural rules of the RhodesMRC Conference" applicable to all Committees. The "RhodesMRC Handbook" serves both as a regulation and an interpreting tool, useful for the delegates' preparation.

1.2. Language

English is the official language of RhodesMRC. A Delegate wishing to speak in French, as the second official language of NATO will be required to provide his or her own translation. Time spent in translation will be counted towards total time allotted for a given speech.

1.3. Credentials

The RhodesMRC Secretariat has accepted the credentials of delegates prior to the opening of the conference. Actions relating to the alteration of rights or credentials of any staff member, delegate or Chairperson may exclusively be initiated by the Secretary General of the conference. Representatives must wear approved credentials all times during the conference.

1.4. Dress Code

In accordance with the delegate's diplomatic status a formal dress code is required. For male delegates a tie is obligatory and for female no revealing outfits are allowed. Informal clothing, such as jeans and trainers, also traditional or religious outfit is not in order. The Secretariat reserves the right to expel a delegate due to his or her dress code.

1.5. Diplomatic Courtesy

During committee session, delegates are expected to exercise diplomatic courtesy when addressing members of the Council, the Chairpersons and the members of the RhodesMRC Secretariat, the Staff and the Organizing Committee. Insulting, abusive, aggressive or offending behavior during the conference is prohibited. The Chairpersons have the authority to address diplomatic warnings to delegates who obviously violate the diplomatic courtesy. In case that the delegate's conduct seriously hampers the process within the committee, the Board reserves the right to request his/her expulsion from the conference room or suspend his/her voting and speaking rights.

1.6. Statements by the RhodesMRC Secretariat

The Secretary General of NATO, the Secretary General of RhodesMRC or his/her subordinates may issue verbal or written statements to the Council at any time during the Conference.

2. The Board of the Council

2.1. Composition

The Board of the North Atlantic Council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (hereinafter referred to as the Council) will be composed of the Secretary General and the Deputy Secretary General.

2.2. Competence of the Board

The competence of the Board may not be questioned by the delegates at any time and for any reason.

2.3. Chairpersons: Authorities and Responsibilities

2.3.1 Authority of the Secretary-General

The Secretary-General shall exercise ultimate authority over his Council, presiding in an equitable and objective manner. The Secretary-General also reserves the right to propose a motion at any time, which will help the work and procedures of the Council move forward and should be taken seriously into account by the Council. In case of disruptive or dilatory behavior of any participants, the Secretary-General reserves the right to take appropriate action.

2.3.2 Responsibilities of the Secretary-General.

The Secretary-General is responsible for all procedural matters pertaining to the Council, including, but not limited to, moderating the debate, determining the applicability of the rules and if necessary, clarifying the meaning of the existing rules without approval by the Council.

2.3.3 Authority of the Deputy Secretary-General

The Deputy Secretary-General shall have authority over all Council support operations and shall exercise ultimate authority over the Council in the absence of or after receiving appointment from the Secretary-General. The Deputy Secretary-General reserves the right to take appropriate actions to ensure the proper representation of country policies by the delegates. In particular, he/she can either take the floor, in order to promote his/her opinion or clarify the policy lines of the member states, or issue written statements addressed to the Council, at any time.

2.3.4 Responsibilities of the Deputy Secretary-General

The Deputy Secretary-General is responsible for all procedural matters pertaining to the Council, assisting the Secretary-General. The Deputy Secretary-General, in particular, has the duty to make remarks when a member state is out of policy at any given discussion and shall also be responsible for ensuring relevancy of the content and format of the Working Papers before their submission for verification by the RhodesMRC Secretariat. He shall also have a supervisory and reconciliatory role in the drafting procedure of the Communiqués under the scope of protecting the general interest of states.

2.4. Caucus of the Board.

The Chairpersons reserve the right to halt the procedures within the Council in order to take a brief caucus.

3. Delegations

3.1. Members

The Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the States parties to the Treaty establishing the North Atlantic Treaty Organization meet within the North Atlantic Council. Each Minister is primary responsible for policy making, substantial decisions (e.g. acceptance of the final Communication), as well as for the lobbying and the off-table diplomacy.

3.2. Observers and Non-Council Members

In order to enhance co-operation and effectiveness of action, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization has instituted partnerships with non-member states under the scope of its Strategic Concept and the Treaty of Washington. These non-Member States (hereinafter referred to as Partners) participate in the Council under the status of an Observer.

The Secretary General of the Council also reserves the right to invite at any time a Non-Council Member States to be present during Council sessions when it considers that the topics discussed affect the State's interests. Non-Council Members are granted the Observer status. Both Partners and invited Non-Council Member States shall enjoy debating rights and participate in all procedural matters, but shall not participate in the Draft Communiqué approval procedure as described in rule 15.2, nor have the right to Submit Draft Communiqués and amendments.

3.3. Permission to Approach the Bench

Any delegate wishing to contact the Secretary-General for a very delicate matter may ask for permission to approach the Bench. This is a last resort in case of emergency.

4. Parliamentary procedure

4.1. Roll Call

Attendance shall be kept by the Secretary General with a Roll Call at the beginning of every session. Delegates shall establish their presence in the Council by raising their placards and declaring "Present".

4.2. Procedural Matters

Procedural matters are those matters relating to the structure of the Council session as defined in the Rules of Procedure of RhodesMRC. They include, but are not limited to, establishing speaking time, motions and adjournment of the council session. Each delegation must vote on procedural matters by raising its placard and no delegate may abstain.

4.3. Substantial Matters

Substantial matters are defined as those matters relating to the specific topic at hand. Substantial Matters need a consensus in order to be approved by the Council.

4.4. Decision Making Process

The Council of NATO during RhodesMRC is composed by the Ministers of Foreign Affairs of the States parties to the North Atlantic Treaty working towards the adoption of Draft Communiqués through the process of consensus.

5. Quorum

Council activities and debate shall start when at least 50% +1 of the States parties to the North Atlantic Treaty are present. If quorum is not met thirty (30) minutes after the scheduled start time of the Council session, the Council shall start its session with the number of delegates already present, unless otherwise instructed by RhodesMRC Secretariat. Participants arriving during or after the Roll Call, are required to send a note to the Board stating their presence in the Council.

As long as the participants have not informed the Boars of their arrival they will not be recognized or allowed to participate in the Council. The total number of delegates will be determined by the attendance list from the most recent Council session. If quorum is in question in the first Council session, the list of delegations expected to attend will serve to determine the total number of delegates in attendance. Quorum will be assumed to be present unless specifically challenged and shown to be absent. The Secretary General may at any time, and especially before entering voting procedures, revisit the quorum at his/her own discretion.

5.1. Motion to Verify the Quorum

Delegates may raise a motion to verify the Quorum, where the Board will proceed with Quorum confirmation by initiating a Roll Call. The Board can rule the Motion dilatory without option for appeal.

6. Majority

Unless otherwise specified, no motions are debatable and all require a simple majority vote to pass.

6.1. Simple Majority

A procedural matter requiring a simple majority to pass implies that fifty percent of the Delegates plus one (50% + 1) must vote in favor for the matter to pass. If the vote is a tie, the matter will be considered to have failed.

6.2. Two-thirds (2/3) Majority

A procedural matter requiring a two-thirds (2/3) majority to pass implies that two-thirds (2/3) of the present member states in the Council must vote in favor.

6.3. Consensus

Consensus is needed in order to reach a decision and adopt a Draft Communiqué. Consensus shall not be verified by a voting procedure but shall be reached through debate. Consultations take place until a decision that is acceptable to all is reached. All NATO decisions are made by consensus, after discussion and consultation among member - countries, due to the nature of the North Atlantic Treaty Favor as an Alliance. This means that when a NATO Communiqué is announced, it is the expression of the collective will of all the sovereign states that are members of the Alliance.

7. Agenda

The Agenda items are ordered randomly. This cannot be considered as binding for the order in which topics will be addressed by the Council. The Board may entertain a motion to set the agenda immediately after setting the quorum so as to define which topic area takes precedent in the debate. Only topics set on the provisional Agenda provided by RhodesMRC shall be considered by the Council.

7.1. Motion to set the Agenda.

Following the Motion to Verify the Quorum, a Motion to Set the Agenda on a specific topic will be in order. The Secretary General will consider the Motions in the order in which they were made. The Board will take one (1) speaker in favor and one (1) speaker against the Motion and proceed with a vote. The speaker's time in favor and against the Motion shall be equal and determined by the Board and the speakers will receive the floor in rotation (in favor – against). If the Motion passes, requiring simple majority, the Agenda will be set in the manner suggested by the Motion. If the Motion fails, the Board shall consider the next Motion and repeat the aforementioned process. If no Motion to set the Agenda receives the necessary majority, then the Council will discuss as first the topic that gathered the most positive votes during the voting procedure. The order in which the Agenda is set at the beginning of the conference shall remain the same for the duration of the conference.

7.2. Alteration of the Agenda

In the event of an international crisis or emergency, the Secretary General may call upon the Council to table debate on the current topic area in order for the more urgent matter to be addressed to immediately. After a Communiqué has been approved on the crisis topic, the Council will return to debate the tabled topic. If a Communiqué on the crisis topic is rejected, the Council may return to debate on the tabled topic area only at the discretion of the Secretary General or his/her Deputies.

8. Speakers

The Debate is opened following a Motion to Launch open Debate from a delegate and a delegate wishing to receive the floor may either raise his/her placard when the Chairpersons call for Delegates to do so or send a note to the Board. A delegate may address the Council only after he/she has been recognized by the Chairpersons and for an allotted speaking time that has been predefined. Speakers must deliver their remarks in a timely manner, in relation to the subject under discussion and delegates are obliged to address their correspondents always according to diplomatic courtesy. When proposing a Motion to Launch Open Debate the delegate has to specify individual speaking time.

8.1. Motion to Launch Open Debate

In order for the Council to enter formal debate there should be a Motion to Launch Open Debate on the discussed Topic Area. The motion requires simple majority to pass. While in Open Debate any participating member wishing to speak should raise their placard, upon request of the Board, and be recognized by the Board. The delegate has to propose an individual speaking time when proposing the motion.

9. Debate

9.1. Formal Debate

The Council shall by default be in Formal Debate. Open Debate is considered the appropriate form of Formal Debate. Once the Agenda is set the Board will entertain a Motion to Launch Open Debate on the discussed Topic Area.

9.2. Informal Debate

Formal debate may be interrupted by informal debate which is considered a more flexible and versatile form of discussion. The two recognized forms of informal debate are Moderated and Unmoderated caucus. When the floor is open after the instruction of the Board, the members of the Council can propose a motion for a Moderated caucus or a motion for an Unmoderated Caucus.

9.3. Moderated Caucus

A delegation, may propose a motion for a Moderated Caucus for a specific time in order to limit the discussion in a specific aspect of the topic; in this case, the Member will be asked to designate the purpose of the moderated caucus, which is mandatorily narrower than the general agenda item, its total duration and individual speaker's time; the Board is free to openly confer with the Member proposing a moderated caucus, in order to assist in designating the aforementioned; a moderated caucus may only be extended once, and the extension shall not exceed in total duration the initial moderated caucus, through a motion to extend a moderated caucus.

9.4. Unmoderated Caucus

A delegation may propose a motion for an Unmoderated caucus; the member is asked to designate the total duration of the unmoderated caucus and its purpose which should mandatorily serve the best interest of the Council; the Secretary General is free to openly confer with the Member proposing an unmoderated caucus, in order to assist in designating the aforementioned features; an Unmoderated caucus is extended only once through a motion to extend the unmoderated caucus, but its duration should not exceed that of the initial of the unmoderated caucus. An Unmoderated Caucus is an informal procedure where the members are allowed to move around the room, discuss, lobby, negotiate and freely draft the official document of the committee; exiting the chambers of the North Atlantic Council, without permission from the Secretary General, is prohibited.

9.5. Recognition

A Delegate may only address the Council if he/she has received permission from the Board.

9.6. Interruptions

A speaker may not be interrupted by another delegate unless the delegate has risen to a Point of Personal Privilege. A Point of Order, Right of Reply or Point Parliamentary Inquiry cannot interrupt a speaker. Only once a speaker has concluded and the floor is given to the Board, a delegate may rise to a Point of Order, Right of Reply.

10. Points

10.1. Point of Personal Privilege

A delegate may rise to a Point of Personal Privilege if a matter impairs the delegate's participation in council activities. The Board shall try to effectively address the source of impairment. A point personal privilege can interrupt the speaker in any case. However, this motion should be used with the utmost discretion.

10.2. Point of Order

A delegate may rise to a Point of Order if a delegate or the Board are not properly following the Rules of Procedure. The Board will rule on the validity of the point immediately. A delegate rising to a Point of Order may not comment on the topic of the discussion. A Point of Order ruled dilatory by the Board may not be appealed. This point may not interrupt a speaker and can only be raised during the Formal Debate.

10.3. Point of Parliamentary Inquiry

A delegate may rise to a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry to request an explanation on the Rules of Procedure by the Board. This point may not interrupt a speaker and can only be raised during the Formal Debate.

11. Rights

11.1. Right of Reply

A delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned by another delegate's comments may rise to a Right of Reply. Disagreement with the content of a delegate's speech does not constitute sufficient justification for a Right of Reply. The Board will recognize the Right of Reply at his/her discretion as well as decide on how to resolve the matter. This point may not interrupt a speaker but should be addressed the moment he/she will has finished his/her speech. Should the Secretary General rule the Right of Reply out of order, his/her decision cannot be appealed. No delegate may call for a Right of Reply on a Right of Reply.

12. Motions

12.1. Motion for a Moderated Caucus

A Delegate proposing a Motion for a Moderated Caucus must indicate a total duration of the caucus, speaking time for each individual speaker and purpose of the Motion. The Board may suggest a more appropriate total duration, speaker's time or purpose, or may rule the Moderated Caucus not in order without possibility of appeal. If the Motion passes, the Committee will enter informal debate whereby the Board will recognize at his/her discretion Delegates who raise their placards to speak about the issue at hand.

12.2. Motion to Extend the Moderated Caucus

A Delegate may propose a Motion to Extend the Moderated Caucus if he/she feels that additional time benefits the work of the Council. The Delegate proposing an Extension of the Moderated Caucus must suggest duration for the extension, not exceeding the initial Moderated Caucus. The individual speaker's time and the purpose of the Caucus remain the same. The Chairpersons may suggest a more appropriate total duration and put it to vote or may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal. Only one extension of the Moderated Caucus is allowed. Purpose and speaking time shall remain intact.

12.3. Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus

A Delegate proposing a Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus must indicate a total duration and purpose for the Caucus. The Board members may suggest a more appropriate caucus length or topic and put it to vote or may rule the Unmoderated Caucus not in order without possibility of appeal.

Once the Motion passes, the Council will start an informal discussion on the topic specified in the Motion without leaving the conference room.

12.4. Motion to Extend the Unmoderated Caucus

A Delegate may move to extend the Unmoderated Caucus if he/she feels that additional time would benefit the work of the Council. The Delegate proposing a Motion to Extend the Unmoderated Caucus must suggest duration for the extension, not exceeding the initial Unmoderated Caucus. The Board members may suggest more appropriate caucus duration and put it to vote or may rule the Extension of the Unmoderated Caucus not in order without the possibility of appeal. Only one extension of the Unmoderated Caucus is allowed. Purpose of the Unmoderated caucus shall remain intact.

12.5. Motion to Table Debate on a Topic

A delegate may move to Table Debate in order to end debate on a substantive issue without concluding discussion and reaching consensus on a draft Communiqué that may be on the floor. If the Board rules the Motion in order, one (1) delegate shall speak in favor and one (1) delegate shall speak against before proceeding with a vote. After the new topic has been discussed according to the Rules of Procedure, the Board shall entertain a Motion to Return to a Dismissed Topic as defined in article 12.6. This Motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass.

12.6. Motion to Return to a Dismissed Topic

If a Motion to Table the Debate passes, the Board may entertain a Motion to return to a Dismissed Topic. In that event, the Board will entertain one (1) speaker in favor and one (1) speaker against the motion. This Motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass.

12.7. Motion to Adjourn the Meeting

A delegate may propose a Motion to adjourn the Meeting in order to suspend all Council activities until the next scheduled meeting. The Secretary General may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal or put it to vote. The motion requires simple majority in order to pass.

12.8. Motion to Adjourn the Session

A delegate may propose a motion to adjourn the Session in order to cease permanently all Council activities. The Board may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal or put it to vote. The motion is debatable thus the Board will entertain one (1) speaker in favor and one speaker(1) against, at his/her discretion. The motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass.

13. Seconds & Objections

After a delegate proposes a motion, the Board may ask for seconds, i.e. delegates agreeing with the motion. All delegates wishing to second the motion will have to raise their placards. If there are no seconds, the motion will automatically fail. If there are seconds, the Board will ask for objections, i.e. delegates disagreeing with the proposed motion. All the delegates wishing to express their objection will raise their placards. If there are no objections, the motion will automatically pass. If there are objections, the board will enter voting procedure.

14. Voting

Voting is in order only for procedural matters. Each delegation of the Council has one vote and must demonstrate its voting intentions by raising its placard at the Secretary General's request unless there is a Roll Call Vote (see rule 14.1). Delegations must vote in favor or against and no abstentions are allowed.

14.1. Roll Call Vote

This Motion is in order when the voting result on a procedural matter remains undefined. The Board may rule the Motion out of order without the possibility of appeal. The Roll Call starts from a delegate randomly selected by the Secretary General.

15. Documents of the Council

15.1. Working Paper

A Working Paper is an informal document used by delegates to work on building a Draft Communiqué. A Working Paper will be distributed at the Board's discretion if requested by a Delegate. A Working Paper can be presented by the delegate when it is the delegate's turn to speak during the debate.

15.2. Communiqués of the North Atlantic Council

15.2.1. Format

Draft Communiqués must be properly formatted according to the guidelines found in the "RhodesMRC Draft Communiqué Writing" paper.

15.2.2. Sponsor.

The main contributor of the draft Communiqué is recognized as the Sponsor. There is only one Sponsor for each Draft Communiqué. The Sponsor must be present for a draft Communiqué to be introduced to the floor. The Sponsor must agree to support a Communiqué, unless major changes have been introduced through the amendment process.

15.2.3. Introduction of a Draft Communiqué

A Delegate may propose a Motion to Introduce a Draft Communiqué. Once the Working Paper has been assigned a Draft Communiqué number by the Secretary General, the Board will entertain a motion to introduce the Draft Communiqué, requiring simple majority. Once the Motion passes, the Secretary General shall invite the Sponsor of the Draft Communiqué to read out only the operative clauses of the Draft Communiqué to the Council. The Sponsor or one of the Signatories will then be recognized for five (5) minutes to speak in favor of the Draft Communiqué. The Speaker may yield his/her remaining time to Questions or to another Delegate if he/she wishes to do so.

15.2.4. Withdrawal of a Draft Communiqué

A draft Communiqué may be withdrawn by its sponsor any time before the amendment procedure starts, as defined by section 15.3. This request should be submitted in written form to the Secretary General. A draft Communiqué may not be withdrawn if any amendment to it is on the floor.

15.3. Amendments

An Amendment may add to, strike out from or modify a part of the draft Communiqué. The Amendment has to be first approved by the Board. Amendments shall be numbered in the order in which they are received. To the end of submitting an amendment, a NATO delegation needs to receive support with the form of signature from 1 more delegation. It is in the discretion of the Board to define (to the House) the period of time, during which the floor will be open to Amendments.

15.3.1. Motion to Introduce Amendments

A Delegate may move for a Motion to Introduce Amendments after the time for the submission of Amendments has elapsed. If the Motion passes, the Board will introduce to the Council all the amendments that have been approved by the Board. The Sponsor of the Draft Decision will be called upon to define to the Board and the Council which amendments are friendly and which are unfriendly.

15.3.2. Non-Substantive Amendments

Amendments correcting grammatical, spelling or formatting mistakes will be automatically adopted without vote from the Council, at the discretion of the Chairpersons. Following the initial reading of the draft Communiqué by its Sponsor, delegates are permitted to point out any such problems to the Board.

15.3.3. Substantive Amendments

Substantive Amendments to a Draft Communiqué require approval from the Board to be introduced. Such Amendments will be approved following the procedure described in Rule 15.5. Amendments to Amendments are out of order. The Board reserves the right to assign one (1) speaker for and one (1) speaker against each Substantive Amendment. Due to the nature of the decision process in the NAC, all Amendments to a Draft Communiqué must be approved with the procedure of consensus as described in rule 6.3.

15.4. Withdrawal

The Sponsor of a Substantive Amendment may request its withdrawal at his/her discretion, before its adoption by the Council.

15.5. Approval of Amendments

After the Board has concluded the Introduction of Amendments as described in Rule 15.3.1., they will read one by one all Amendments, asking for Objections. Should there be any Objections, the Council shall enter a short period of debate defined by the Secretary General, in order to reach consensus. When the allotted period of time for debate has elapsed, the Secretary General shall ask the Council whether consensus has been achieved, taking this result as final. In case no consensus can be reached, the Council will disregard the Amendment at hand. All subsequent Amendments shall be discussed in accordance with the aforementioned procedure, and in the order defined by their assigned number.

If one Amendment implies the rejection of a second Amendment, the second Amendment will not be discussed. An Amendment that has been approved by the Council shall be automatically integrated into the Draft Communiqué. Once all Amendments relating to a Draft Communiqué have been discussed and approved by the Council, the Board shall read the operative clauses as they have been modified.

16. Decision Making Process

16.1. General

The Council usually reaches decisions by allowing discussions to continue until a consensus is reached. In the event of a stalemate, the Council may use a tour de table (see rule 16.2. below).

16.1.1. Consensus

For the decision process demanding consensus, refer to rule 6.3., above.

16.1.2. Tour de table

A Tour de Table shall be conducted at the discretion of the Board. The Chairpersons request each delegate to give a short summary of his/her position on the matter under discussion and express any disagreement, in order to determine whether a compromise is possible.

16.2. Public Statements

In the event of a crisis, the Council may exercise its right to issue a Public Statement. Its format is the same with that of the Draft Communiqué. Its purpose is to declare the Council's position on an unexpected crisis.

16.2.1. Motion to Approve the Public Statement

A delegate may propose a Motion to Approve the Public Statement, in order to verify whether a consensus on the Statement has been achieved. The Board may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal, or put it to vote. The motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass. Once the motion has passed, the Board shall ask for any objections on the Statement, if there are no objections the Statement is considered as a public document of the Council.

16.3. Approval of Communiqués

The approval of Communiqués is subject to the procedure described in Rule 15.2. Once Motion to Close Debate has passed, the Draft Communiqué on the table shall be considered as the final Communiqué of the Council upon which consensus has been reached.

16.3.1 Motion to Approve the Draft Communiqué

A delegate may propose a Motion to Approve the Draft Communiqué in order to verify whether a consensus on the Draft Communiqué has been achieved. The Board may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal or put it to vote. The motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass. Once the motion has passed, the Board shall ask for any objections on the Draft Communiqué, if there are no objections the draft Communiqué is considered to be adopted.

If there are objections the Council shall enter a Tour de table (see rule 16.2) with an individual speaker's time defined by the Secretary General. Delegates objecting should refer to the specific articles causing their disagreement. Should the Board observe disagreements among the member states, the Secretary General will entertain and facilitate a short period of debate, only on the articles causing disagreement as stated by the objecting delegates, in order to identify possible grounds of compromise. She/he shall play a reconciliatory role in order for the Council to reach consensus.

The Secretary General maintains the right to make any necessary adjustments to the content of the Draft Communiqué guided by the outcome of the debate and based on the consent of the member states. After the conclusion of debate the Secretary General shall once more verify the consensus on the Draft Communiqué, asking for objections, considering this result to be final.

16.4. Motion to Close Debate on the Topic Area under Discussion

After consensus has been reached on the Draft Communiqué, a delegate may propose a Motion to Close Debate in order to end debate on the Topic Area under discussion. The Board may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal or put it to vote. The motion is debatable thus the Secretary General will entertain one (1) speaker in favor and one speaker (1) against, at his/her discretion. The motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass.
