15.7. Motion to Divide the Question

Prior to the start of the voting procedure on a Draft Conclusion, a Delegate may rise to a Motion to Divide the Question in order to vote on an individual operative clause, a group of operative clauses or clause by clause. A Delegate must specify how he/she wishes to divide the operative clauses. Should there be more than one Motion to divide the question on the floor, Council shall vote upon the Motions, starting from the most disruptive one. The President shall take one (1) Speaker in favor and one (1) Speaker against the first Motion to Divide the Question for a speaking time of one (1) minute each. The Motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass. If the Motion passes, subsequent Motions to Divide the Question will be ruled dilatory and the Council will proceed to voting on the Draft Conclusions in the manner suggested by the Motion. If the Motion fails, the remaining Motions will be considered in accordance with the above procedure. The divided section that fails during voting will be taken out of the final Draft Conclusion; only those sections that have passed will remain. Subsequently, the Council will proceed to vote on the new final Draft Conclusion as a whole.

15.8. Motion to Split the House

The Motion to Split the House is in order when the Delegate proposing this Motion wishes to exclude abstention from the voting options during the final vote on the Draft Recommendation. This Motion has to be proposed immediately after the Council Closes Debate and enters Voting Procedure. The motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass. Once the Motion passes, delegations shall not be allowed to abstain during the voting of the Recommendation.

15.9. Consensus

Conclusions of the Council shall be adopted by consensus. Consensus shall be understood to mean the absence of any objection expressed by a participating State to the adoption of the Conclusion in question. Even one vote against means that consensus has not been reached. Abstentions are not counted in favor nor do they lead to a failure of the consensus.

15.9.1. Qualified Majority

From 1 November 2014 a new procedure for qualified majority voting applies in the Council. Under this procedure, when the Council votes on a proposal by the Commission or the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, a qualified majority is reached if two conditions are met:

- 55% of members states vote in favor – in practice this means 16 out of 28
- The proposal is supported by member states representing at least 65% of the total EU population.

This new procedure is also known as the “double majority” rule.

15.10. Motion to Retake Vote

The Motion to Retake the Vote is in order when the result of the vote on the Conclusion ends with a difference of one (1) or a tie. The Motion automatically passes and the Council enters informal debate for a short period of time, defined by the Board. After the caucus, the vote shall be retaken and the result of the second vote shall be considered as final. All motions described in the section of the voting procedure are in order, but no Motions to retake the vote shall be entertained. Should the second vote end in tie the results of the previous vote shall be considered final and shall not be subject to another motion to retake vote. In case the initial vote is a tie as well the matter is considered to have failed.

15.11. Adoption of a Draft Conclusion

If the Draft Conclusion passes, it is then automatically named EC Conclusion and hereinafter constitutes an official document of the EC.
